

Steam Train Rides for the Whole Family

At Northampton Society of Model Engineers (NSME), Delapre Park

Do you live near Northampton and need to keep the children amused for an hour or two?

Who's it for? Mum, dad, children, and their friends - in fact, the whole family.

Where? In the corner of Delapre Park nearest to the town centre. Turn from London Road into the entrance road to Delapre Abbey and then immediately left and park in the field. Post Code: NN4 8AJ

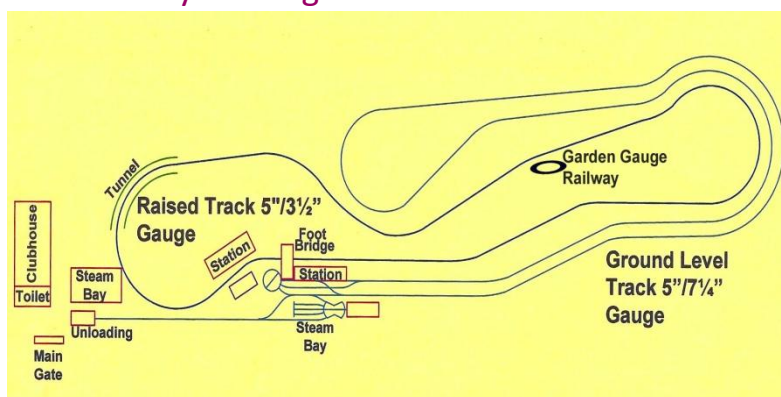

What's the cost? Train rides are 50p. Entry to the site is free. Parking is free

When? Once a month from May to October, normally on the first Sunday of the month, 2 to 5pm, with the exception of May, which is on May Day Bank Holiday Monday.

Refreshments are available and there are toilets on site.

What is NSME? NSME is Northampton Society of Model Engineers Ltd. We are a friendly group of like-minded people aiming to encourage, develop and provide facilities for the hobby of model engineering.

Anything else? Apart from public running as above, we run birthday parties on Saturdays and Tuesdays throughout the summer.
